

First Nations Child and Family Caring Society Proposed Amendments to the Draft Final Settlement Agreement

DRAFT FOR DISCUSSION

September 3, 2026

Explanatory Note

The Caring Society has drafted the following proposed amendments which will be sent to the Draft First Nations Child and Family Services Final Settlement Agreement Parties for their consideration. These amendments represent some of the key changes the Caring Society is seeking but is not an exhaustive list. The amendments will require additional definitions which the Caring Society will draft shortly. For more information on the Caring Society's positions on reforming First Nations Child and Family Services please see here

Purpose

The purpose of a reformed approach to First Nations Child and Family Services is to ensure that First Nations children, youth, and families have access to effective and culturally based interventions to prevent and respond to child maltreatment and ensure they can thrive in a manner consistent with applicable child protection legislation and legal orders, including but not limited to An Act respecting First Nations, Inuit and Métis children, youth and families, SC 2019, c 24; the Canadian Human Rights Act, R.S.C., 1985, c. H-6; the orders of the Canadian Human Rights Tribunal in First Nations Child and Family Caring Society et al. v Attorney General of Canada, T1340/7008; the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples; and the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act, S.C. 2021, c. 14.

Additional Principles

1. Honour of the Crown
2. Canada has the sole onus to cease the discrimination and prevent recurrence
3. Intergenerational equity,
4. Transparency, accountability, inclusivity

| PART XIV – GOVERNANCE OF THE REFORMED FNCFS PROGRAM Paras 145-152 This part sets out that the Reform Implementation Committee (the “RIC”) shall oversee and monitor the implementation of the Reformed FNCFS Program. The RIC shall receive input, recommendations, or observations from the Parties, and the various committees under the Draft FSA: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Expert Advisory Committee • NAN-Canada Remoteness Quotient Table • NARC-Canada Remoteness Quotient Table • National Secretariat • Systemic Review Committee (SRC) • Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) The RIC will also support the oversight of the Program Assessment Organization and prepare the Program Assessment Opinions and executive summaries for the Parties and the public. Meeting and work product of the RIC will be confidential and not available to the public. Canada shall provide $22.2 million to AFN, COO, and NAN over the term of the FSA to support their participation in the RIC. | Replace the RIC with the Chiefs Committee Affirm that all First Nations Chiefs are the decision makers on the Reformed Funding Approach on National matters and that First Nations Chiefs are the decision makers on matters affecting their Nations or Region or Sub-Region. Establish a National Children’s Chiefs Committee (the “NCCC”) composed of regional First Nations representatives who are knowledgeable in child and family services and are chosen by the Chiefs in the Regions that operates in a transparent, inclusive and accountable manner and reports to Chiefs in Assembly and First Nations who are not members of AFN. The NCCC will bring material decisions regarding the Reformed Funding Approach to Chiefs in Assembly and First Nations who are not members of AFN for decision making. Regional Chief’s processes are to be respected Reconvene the National Advisory Committee (the “NAC”) with regional representation and the Parties to provide technical advice to the Chiefs’ Committee and to Chiefs in Assembly and First Nations who are not member of AFN and regional Chiefs’ bodies as requested. The NAC will operate in an inclusive, transparent and accountable manner. All references to the RIC in the Draft FSA shall be replaced with the NCCC. Dissolve the Systemic Review Committee and the Technical Advisory Committee and reallocate those funds to benefit children. The NCCC, NAC and EAC will be presumptively public. |

| National Secretariat & Regional Secretariat – Para. 108-117 This part sets out the function, governance and data inputs and management. The Draft FSA states that the National Secretariat shall be independent from the Government of Canada. It shall be First Nations-led, apolitical, not-for-profit. The National Secretariat shall be established with two sectors: (i) a Best Practices and Programming sector and (ii) a Data and Evidence sector. The membership of the National Secretariat shall be the AFN, COO and NAN. The AFN shall incorporate the National Secretariat. The draft Articles and Bylaws for the National Secretariat are found at Appendix 9. | Replace National Secretariat Model with NAC oversight The terms of reference of the National Secretariat will be withdrawn and the NAC will develop models for the National Secretariat and regional secretariats for recommendation to the NCCC and decision making by First Nations, including in relation to membership. |
| Scope and Jurisdiction of the EAC – Para. 202 202 The Reform Implementation Committee shall oversee the Expert Advisory Committee, including providing direction and guidance as required. The terms of reference of the Expert Advisory Committee are attached at Appendix 7, which may be updated by the Reform Implementation Committee. [Paras. 204-218 set out the reporting structure of the EAC and their mandate] | Replace para. 202 with the following: 202 The Expert Advisory Committee shall be an independent open, and transparent committee established to respond to the reasons and guidance of the Tribunal in 2022 CHRT 8 and previous rulings including 2016 CHRT 2. The Expert Advisory Committee shall develop its own Terms of Reference, which shall be public, and Canada shall provide adequate funding to the EAC to fully discharge its responsibilities. Paragraphs 204-218 will require adjustment to reflect the EAC’s own approach to its work and regular reporting to the CHRT and First Nations in Assembly. |
| Selection and Oversight of the Program Assessment Organization – Paras. 167, 172 and 173 167 the AFN shall initiate a separate request for proposal to select and retain the Program Assessment Organization(s) to conduct each of the Program Assessment(s), on the advice of the Reform Implementation Committee. | Replace paras. 167, 172 and 173 with the following: 167 The NAC shall oversee and recommend an organization to the NCCC as the Program Assessment Organization(s) to conduct each of the Program Assessment(s). The NCCC shall consider and review the NAC’s recommendation and seek input from the Chiefs in Assembly and First Nations not affiliated with the AFN regarding the selection of the Program Assessment (Organization(s)). |
