OUR CHILDREN OUR WAY

OCTOBER 16–18, 2023

Vancouver Convention Centre

*A National Forum
for Indigenous Child & Family Well-Being*

The 2nd Annual Our Children Our Way conference offers a unique opportunity to strengthen networks and gain insights into effective approaches for supporting Indigenous children, youth, and families.

Key Conference Highlights:

- Foster Collaborative Partnerships: Engage with like-minded professionals and communities committed to Indigenous child and family well-being.
- Expand Your Understanding: Gain valuable knowledge and understanding of best practices in areas such as practice, policy, community healing, operational development, and jurisdictional pathways.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Hereditary and elected leadership, youth, elders, knowledge keepers, band designates, social workers, community partners, and Indigenous child & family service organizations.
